ABOUT LHS

Let's Help Some1, also known as LHS, is a registered non-profit initiative, started in the year 2016 by Rohit Roy and Nikita Ajwani. It is working with the objective of helping people suffering from Thalassemia and support them for their health and educational needs. Its aim is to help Thalassemia patients achieve a quality life and also to reduce the number of Thalassemics in the next generation. They wish to reach as many people as they can and spread the word on Thalassemia Prevention. We believe that we all have an ability to help each other. And therefore, our tagline 'Come forward for a Cause'. We urge everyone to help some1 in need, whenever and however one can as there are many who need support.
