CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Arya Mahila P.G. College is admitted to the privileges of Banaras Hindu University and hence follows the curriculum (elective) designed by the University at UG and PG. In curriculum delivery the main focus is on holistic teaching, timely evaluation and enhancing the quality of education. The implementation of the curriculum is done by the respective departments. Under the supervision of the IQAC, the Academic calendar is implemented at the beginning of the year. Regular meetings among faculty members are held in every department which is presided by the respective HOD's. Syllabus distribution and delivery mechanisms are discussed. An action plan is drawn for the delivery of each paper for the entire semester. The tentative schedule of ICT classes are determined and announced to the students. This also includes films/documentaries/PPT that will aid in delivering lectures. Guest lectures, Seminars/Webinars, Workshops Conferences and hands on training programmes are organized frequently. Fieldtrips are arranged to facilitate the experiential learning and to inculcate research temperament among students. ICT based teaching and learning is adopted and is supported by smart boards, LCDs, language communication labs, internet enabled systems and Wi-Fi enabled campus. The curriculum is supported by various innovative practices viz. Certificate & Diploma courses.

2.6 - Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 - Programme and course outcomes for all Programmes offered by the institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students.

The programme outcome from each department is being identified and circulated to each department. This procedure is followed with strict compliance of goals of Outcome Based Education (OBE), the Program Outcomes (POs), Program Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) which are framed by the department offering the concerned program after rigorous discussion with all faculty. The faculty members of the department inform the students and create awareness during their induction program and also emphasize the need to attain the outcomes. After attainment of consensus, the same are extensively disseminated and publicized via numerous means such as display of POs, PSOs and COs on the college website.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution.

Different assessment techniques are used to assess the attainment of course outcome (COs) programme outcome (POs) and programme specific outcome (PSOs) viz.

- Semester end examination.
- Sessional examination and assignment.
- Practical examination.

The attainment level of course outcomes is calculated based on the marks secured by the students in internal and external exams as stated in terms of following table:

Criteria Level Attained More than 50% students of class obtain marks/assessment above 50% 1 More than 60% students of class obtain marks/assessment above 50% 2 More than 70% students of class obtain marks/assessment above 50% 3

Scores of attainment are calculated:

Name of the subject Code Total no. of students No. of students attaining level 1 No. of students attaining level 2 No. of students attaining level 3 Average attainment

COs that are mapped to the POs based on their mutual correlation. Based on attained level as shown in the table in CO attainment and mapping of CO and PO, attainment levels of PO are calculated as shown below:

PO1 PO2 PO3 PO4 PO5 PO6 PO7 CO 101 CO 102 CO 404 TotalAttainment

Direct attainment level of a PO is determined by taking average across all courses addressing that PO.

6.2.2 - The functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from policies, administrative setup, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

The Apex Policy Making body of the college is the Management Committee. It consists of twenty-one members, including the President, Vice President, Manager, Principal, two senior professors from affiliating University nominated by the Vice Chancellor, teacher's representatives and other members. The meetings of the Management Committee are held quarterly to take all the policy decisions. All the Academic matters of the College are initiated by the faculty and finally approved by the Principal of the College. As the Organogram reflects, the Principal takes suggestions from all the departments for academic purposes, including librarian for library matters. The librarian reports to the Principal for financial and administrative matters. The Administrative Officer, assisted by Section Officers, takes care of all the administrative and financial matters in consultation with the Principal & Manager. The appointment and service rules followed by the institution are as per UGC/Banaras Hindu University norms. The selection committee consists of the Principal, the Chairperson (President of the College) or his Nominee, the Teacher In-charge of the concerned department, the Vice-Chancellor nominee, the SC/ST/OBC observer, two subject experts (external) and one subject expert (internal). The non-teaching staff is recruited by the Management committee through written (skill) tests.

6.3 - Faculty Empowerment Strategies

6.3.1 - The institution has effective welfare measures for teaching and non- teaching staff

Arya Mahila P.G College has effective welfare measures for teaching and non-teaching staff. It adopts UGC guidelines and the rules framed by affiliating University i.e. Banaras Hindu University. The College has been following the UGC mandate in extending welfare measures to the full-time teaching & non-teaching fraternity. These include GPF, LTC, Children's Educational Allowance, Group Insurance, Medical reimbursement, Casual leave, Special casual leave, Maternity leave, Paternity leave etc. These facilities are not applicable to the temporary faculties except ESI and EPF. The same is the case with SFS (Self Financed Scheme) faculty (except Duty Leave and financial assistance up to 2500). However, for SFS (Self-Financed Scheme) programme, Separate Service rules/procedures are implemented.

NPS is applied to Teaching and Non-Teaching staff who have joined after 2004. The teachers are extended the facility of Duty Leave along with financial assistance up to Rs.2500 for attending seminars/workshops. For the physical & mental fitness of the staff, the facilities of yoga, gymnasium and cultural evening are arranged by the College. Non-teaching staff is also benefited from the welfare schemes which are applicable to them.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly Enumerate the various internal and external financial audits carried out during the year with the mechanism for settling audit objections within a maximum of 200 words

College has a system of Internal audit mechanisms, and there is a system that, before payment of any expenditure, all vouchers are approved by the Principal. Internal Audit: For internal audit, the college has constituted an Audit committee under the chairmanship of the Principal.

Internal audits are undertaken half-yearly, April- September and October -March. The Committee emphasizes all fiscal affairs related to the college, such as

- Revenue expenditure
- Capital expenditure
- Fixed Assets Accounts
- Voucher Bank Reconciliation
- Student data and fee collection

Annual Statutory audit is done by a Chartered Accountant Firm appointed by the Management Committee of the college. They conduct an audit as per the norms and standards prescribed by ICAI. Auditors verify and certify the entire Income and Expenditure and the Capital Expenditure of the College. Auditors do a thorough check and verification of all vouchers of the transactions that are carried out in each financial year. Further, any observations and discrepancies observed during the audit have been rectified, and the college has taken corrective measures. External Audit: The accounts of the College will be open for Audit by the Comptroller & Auditor General of India under the provisions of General Financial Rules, 2017.

6.4.3 - Institutional strategies for mobilization of funds and the optimal utilization of resources

From time to time, the College has been evolving various strategies for mobilising fund requirements. Currently, 95% of the grants are made available by the UGC as maintenance grants. The rest of the 5% fund is managed by the College. From the financial year 2020-21, as per the instruction of the Ministry of Finance, College has opened an Assignment account under the Treasury Single Account in the Reserve Bank of India. The Student's fee is the other source of resource mobilization, and the other expenses are met under the SFS (Self -financed scheme). In addition, the college also has a corpus fund of Rs. 7.00 crore. For optimum resource utilisation based on the department and administrative wing requirement, provisions are made in the budget, prepared by a team of experts under the supervision of the Section Officer (Accounts) & Principal of the College. The grants issued by UGC are mainly invested in value-adding content such as staff salary, Pension, and Academic and Infrastructural development.
